CONSOLIDATE YOUR CLINICAL REASONING WITH:

Interaction: To promote comprehensive discussion, bring questions and your experiences with patients since Level 1 and take full advantage of Dean's unparalleled experience.
Understanding: Know why, in the event of an adverse reaction, it occurred and how to deal with it!

Confidence: Increase confidence in your choice of treatment direction and technique. No more uncertainty.
Clarity: Develop clarity around un-resolving (as the technique is sustained) headache and how you can still achieve a positive result even though headache reproduction remains unchanged.
Realisation: Your already improved outcomes will be significantly progressed because you will realise the importance of 'Battle 1' versus 'Battle 2', and be able to identify why progress is not as it should be.
Facilitation: Dean's role is to facilitate and accelerate your progress; this is done through your participation in the examination of 4-6 patients.

Promotion Post Course:

You will receive a Certificate of Attendance at the conclusion of this course; this will enable you to promote yourself as having attended the Watson Headache® Level 2 Consolidation Course. The Watson Headache® Institute directs you in this regard, using the 'Marketing Permission Given to Course Attendees', whilst acknowledging the Watson Headache® Institute's intellectual property (including trademarks) and copyright rights. You do not have permission to create a title for yourself using the words 'Watson' or 'Watson Headache®'.

Watson Headache® International Community:

Once you attend one of the Watson Headache® Institute's courses you join the Watson Headache® International Community of 4000 course attendees in over 25 countries, and the many people with headache, migraine and comorbid conditions who have sought the help of health professionals (physiotherapists, chiropractors, osteopaths and manual therapy doctors) who have attended one or more of the Watson Headache® Institute's courses.

REGULATION

1. Acceptance and compliance with the following regulations are a condition for the admission of participants to the course.
2. The methods of registration and payment of registration fees must comply with the provisions of the course announcement.
3. Any teaching material may not be reproduced. Any photocopying must be authorized in advance. Manualmente s.a.s. reserves the right to add handouts to the course costs. 4
4. Without prejudice to the fact that it is forbidden to take photographs or videos, any voice recordings must be authorized in advance.
5. Manualmente s.a.s. will not be liable for the failure to carry out the course when this is due to force majeure, the failure to reach the minimum number of participants, or reasons beyond its control.
6. The payment of the course registration fee is independent of the obtaining of the Educational Credits of the ECM program.
7. Manualmente s.a.s. reserves the right to communicate any cancellation of the course to those enrolled up to one week before the date set for the start of the course, by telephone or written communication (sms, whatsapp or e-mail). In this case, Manualmente s.a.s. is required to return the registration fee to the learner.
8. The participant may renounce attending the course, by giving appropriate written notice (the date of receipt of the communication will be valid) to the Organization Office, at least 30 days before the start. In this case, the student will be refunded the fee paid net of bank and secretarial charges set at € 50.00. If the cancellation takes place later, the participant is required to pay the total cost of the course.
9. The payment of the registration fee, according to the procedures indicated on the descriptive page of each course, must be made within 7 days of the enrolment process. Otherwise, the registration will be cancelled.
10. If the maximum number of participants is exceeded, the first FIFTEEN will be accepted, and the date of payment of the bank transfer for the registration fee will be valid.
11. In the event of exceeding the maximum number of participants, the participant can reserve a place on the waiting list, registering online without paying the registration fee.
12. Sometimes the procedural process adopted by the National Commission for Continuing Medical Education may lead to delays in the attribution of credits for some training initiatives. Therefore, if the CME commission does not receive communication about the attribution of credits before the course and/or in time to inform the members, or this communication arrives after the event has taken place, Manualmente s.a.s. does not assume any responsibility in this regard and is not required to pay any compensation to the members.
13. The participant will be involved by the teacher in the exercise of practical maneuvers both as an operator and as a patient. If he/she cannot be subjected, as a patient, to some or all of the practical maneuvers provided for in the course program, he/she must give prior written notice to Manualmente s.a.s. who will notify the course teacher. Under no circumstances will Manualmente s.a.s. be responsible for the practical exercises carried out among the participants during the courses organized by it.
14. Failure to comply with even one of the above clauses authorizes Manualmente s.a.s. not to accept the participant to the course without, for this reason, having to reimburse him.
15. To obtain training credits, it is necessary to attend at least 80% of the lesson hours scheduled. If the course lasts 6 hours or less, 100% of the hours are required.
16. To obtain training credits, at least 75% of the correct answers in the final evaluation tests are required.
